

A detailed medieval fantasy landscape. In the foreground, a knight in a dark blue fur-trimmed cloak with gold embroidery and a crown emblem on the back stands with their back to the viewer. They hold a shield with a grey wolf's head on a blue background and a sword with a gold hilt. In the background, a large stone castle with blue-roofed towers sits on a hill, with a waterfall nearby. A dragon flies in the sky above a valley with a river and a bridge. The scene is set during a golden sunset or sunrise.
